A Plan For The Future Or A Plan for the Present

THE BUELL has a plan which provides for two bedrooms. There is pleasant cross ventilation throughout every one of The Buell's rooms. And there is easy access to all rooms in the compact house from one small hall. This is a convenient feature not often possible to obtain in a small house as The Buell.

The Buell's modern kitchen is efficiently arranged to save steps while preparing a meal. It has a convenient built-in hinged seat at one end. And there are corner windows that provide a bright and cheerful dining area.

The Buell's two bedrooms are of medium size. Wall space is generous in each of the two bedrooms. This allows ample area for the placement of furniture. The exterior walls of The Buell are constructed of frame siding. The roof lines are low, giving the house a modern appearance.

Overall dimensions of The Buell are 32 feet 6 inches by 32 feet 6 inches. The house contains an area of 899 square feet and a volume of 17,519 cubic feet.

We hope we can be of service to you on plans for a New Home. We Invite you to discuss your plans with us.

FISH & WHALE TALES (By the Fishy Editor)

Calendar sex: Fishing is good the balance of this and all next week. Full moon on the 10th. Reports during the week end were good. That man and wife team, Grady and Eva Ridings brought by the office about 30 big nice strippers and one pike they landed below the dam during the week end.

Thursday of the past week ye fishy one cast two arms off from the river bank. Secret: Nara, not even a fish. A few rods out in the river was Roy, Jimmy, and little Emmy—they dragged in a total of 22 strippers. Ye fishy one left the scene. . . and

Up the river "a piece" was Doc Sam Henson—His shirt was wet, but he hadn't been mowing the lawn, neither had he slipped into the river. He came up the bank with a nice string.

Later Doc and ye fishy editor ran into each other again. Doc got 15 and old Rodger 5, which included one skip jack and one perfectly good puncture. In that cool, shady place below the dam—Postmaster Ott Culp, who had no luck either, came to our rescue and helped us leave about 20 bucks in West Gilbertsville, or walk home with our $1 a fish string—and they spoiled before reaching head taw. Yep, it was a fine holiday week end.

MR. AND MRS. FOREST OLE ENTERTAIN TOWN. GUESTS DURING WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Cole had as week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Vandyske, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. David Kall, of Ripley, Tennessee. They spent a part of the week end at Kentucky Dam state Park and fished in the Lake.

Mrs. Dillmer Dunnigan, of Route 4, was a Tuesday visitor in Benton.

Tuesday eve Elvis Holley came by yelling for ye fishy editor, and he had a right to yell at everybody. anybody. He began casting about 5 P. M., Tuesday, by 7:30 he was back in town with 15 fine strippers and some of the biggest ones ye fishy one has ever seen. He also had one black bass. . .

Started the fireworks—Yesterday (Wednesday) — Everybody "lit out" thinking all one had to do was drag and strung—the bank was lined. B. L. Trevathan got 3, after talking to 'em like a negro talks to a pair of dice; Elvis was back, but four or five was the best he could do; Ken Nichols got about 6; Mr. and Mrs. Dunk Malin a few; Edward Draffen found one foolish one; Jim Vaughn got a big crappi while Noot Vaughn granted for him, and Milt Boyd robbed a noanmy of three little ones. With the aid of Edward Draffen and Jim Vaughn, ye fishy one stringed five. The gate at Dam was closed yesterday and fishing seasonals may have to be changed to 'tother side of river.

Observations

During the past few weeks the air has been full of rumors concerning our candidates for office. Almost everything from bootlegging to horse thievery has been reported about the candidates. This, of course, is to be expected in a campaign, but ye gods, how it reflects upon our county.

Don't become alarmed over these reports. I know of no bootleggers or horse thieves running for office. They all appear to be gentlemen and most any one of the 40 would make good officers. Some, of course, would make better officers than others and this is what we should consider, qualifications, honesty, and integrity. Not bootleggers and horse thieves.

The last few weeks of the campaign will, no doubt, bring new rumors, new charges, something to hide the real issues, the real thing in the making. It has been reported here that some out-of-county men have boasted that they would spend a lot of money in the county and that they were going to elect a Sheriff and County Judge this time. Do you approve of others in some county dictating who is to be our public servants for four years?

We do not stick our noses into other counties' affairs and I do not believe our people want this interference from other places. My advice would be that if this money shows up, take all you can get and vote as you deem please. There won't be anyone watching you when you vote anyway, so let 'em send a barrel in and then vote for good men or the BEST men for office.

Now is a good time again to show the pollsters of good government we can play a game too. If it is to be a shady deal, get in on the shady side and let the sun come out when in the voting booth. It is Marshall county folks' business who shall be their officers for the next 4 years—not some selfish interest in a good time to become sorta clannish and attend to our own business.

We haven't become so dumb or careless that we need the as-

Worker's Dilemma

Whether to ask for another raise in 1949 is a question now vexing our unions. Shall they go on through the year without asking for another raise? Some unions are saying it will be bad business for the nation's workers to insist on another round of increases. Others, recalling that raises have been obtained three years in a row, insist that labor keep it up and demand another raise.

How's the way to answer this $64 question, so that the American workman may have the $64—and much more? Because it makes sense that any sound gain made by American workers will be a gain for the entire nation, I favor whatever will have the greatest long range benefit for American workers.

Consider the Facts
People who have their facts straight know that any substantial rise in wages must be followed by a jump in prices. This is elementary fact-and-figure economics. If we could have another wage boost with the rise in prices it would bring—and the nation would keep on buying—that would be one thing. But there are strong indications that won't work again.

Pipelines of supply to consumers are beginning to fill up. The public is refusing to buy as it has for five years. Consumers are getting more price conscious. Many manufacturers are even now finding it hard to market what they produce. Some are already compelled either to decrease hours of operation or lay off workers.

Danger Signal
If a wage boost now would result in more unemployment and lower wages in the long run, would labor unions demand the increase? No, they would not. Yet that is exactly what would happen, if we should crowd the entire economy toward a depression. There are certain serious danger signals.

Here is a sample. On January 29 a Cleveland utility company awarded a contract for two generators to a Swiss firm. They cost $1,140,000 which was nearly $500,000 less than bids of three American firms. The Cleveland company had to accept the foreign bid, despite protests by American companies and by American workers.

The Safe Way
Now that Europe is beginning to get into the market, it will be seen that America has no monopoly on manufactured goods in the world markets. Competition there is just beginning, and it will get tough plenty. Wage increases that push up prices, besides making more trouble just now in the home markets, would make it hard for America to compete in foreign markets. Foreign production will also continue to invade our home markets.

Since living costs are already definitely going down, and since a wage increase would be very bad for the industries we work for, and would endanger our jobs, I'd say let it go by. If we can keep present wage levels and let prices come down, that will mean a real raise for everybody. That way, not only union members, but everybody will have their standard of living raised a full notch.

THE POWER to thrill has not been lost by the Palms, as the men on that carrier found out. The group numbered 120 through 134 in our Bibles are known as the "Palm-Marching Songs," and were originally used by the Hebrews as they went year by year up to their capital city of Jerusalem and to the Temple which was the center of their religion. Then as now, the Hebrews were a singing people. A nation that cannot sing, a nation without songs, is a dismal country indeed.

Difference among various countries is symbolized by their songs, or the lack of them. The Chinese, for instance, have no song that draws them all together in the same way that Englishmen are united in "God Save the King" or as Frenchmen once were by the "Marseillaise."

When it comes to pass, as one it did in the United States, that one part of the nation will sing one song (say, "John Brown's Body") while another part will not sing that song but another one (say, "Dixie"), then civil war is at the gates. Only people who will sing together can be trusted to live together.

Singing Church
In the long caravans, marching up the rocky hillside trails to Jerusalem, the ancient Hebrews put their faith into stirring words set to music. So it is always. All over the Christian world, wherever and whenever the singing is good, religion is warm and vigorous.

Where the heart is full, there will be song. Revivals of religion are revivals of singing. To this day a stranger in a strange city, looking for a church home, is most likely to settle down in the church where the singing is the best.

It is not an accident that the Moravian church is at the same time the church that makes more of Easter than some other churches. It is the church where at funerals the music is never sad but joyous, not mourning-songs but triumphant hymns of Christian faith.

Patriotism and Religion
READ these marching Palms through-the-reading time is only a few minutes-and see for yourself how the ancient Hebrew men of God united their praise of Him with love for their country. To this day, in our Christian hymnals, patriotism and religion are often combined. "God Save the King" is a prayer; so is "America the Beautiful." National hymns have a rightful place in a book of public worship. For while patriotism, by itself, is a poor substitute for religion, still a man who will not love his country lacks something of being a good Christian, and on the other hand a man without faith in God makes a very poor citizen.

Jury May Be Seated Today In Darnall Case

FISH and WHALE TALES
(By the Fishy Editor)

A jury was seated to try Cranes Darnall around 2 p. m. today (Thursday), 8 men from Marshall and 4 from Livingston County. The trial of Darnall was begun immediately after the jury was seated.

Darnall is charged with the fatal shooting of his father-in-law, Jesse Starks, 46, Benton, eighth policeman, last November.

Special Judge H. P. S. Bailey selected Sheriff Walker Myers to summon 60 prospective jurors from neighboring Livingston County for examination today.

The defense attorneys made an effort to complete the jury before the weekend.

The cost in jury service to Marshall county to date has run to nearly $1,600 for the trial, according to information from the Circuit Clerk's office.

The commonwealth accepted a full jury of 12 shortly before noon Wednesday. Thirteen had been qualified for jury service on the basis of having formed an opinion in the case and on their willingness to inflict the death penalty if warranted.

The defense attorneys dismissed five of the 13.

The 13 were qualified out of a total of 293 persons examined since the case was called Monday morning.

Sheriff Walker Myers summoned 150 persons for possible jury service Wednesday and he said not one of them failed to respond. The last summons was served at 3 a. m., he added.

In all, Sheriff Myers and his deputies have served subpoenas on 350 persons for possible jury service. Only two of that number failed to respond and both of them were ill, Sheriff Myers said.

"I want the folks of Marshall county to know that I appreciate this cooperation," the Sheriff stated.

Efforts to get a jury for the Darnall trial were started Monday morning. The regular jury panel was exhausted without selection of a single juror and Judge Bailey instructed Sheriff Myers to summons 200 Marshall residents for possible jury service the following day.

Only eight of the 200 were qualified to try the case and Judge Bailey sent out another call for 150 prospective jurors. It was out of the later group that the commonwealth selected four complete its jury panel.
